MEET THE CHEERFUL CHEETAHS

Keisha Harris

I am Keisha Harris and I am happy to be your child's teacher. I have been married to my college sweetheart and best friend, Barney for 20 years. We have 2 sons, and 1 daughter; Joshua -18, Justin -15, Marianna -12. I also have a fur baby named Kimberly Elise. I have been teaching for the last 20 years; I love building relationships with children & families.

I have a BS degree in Human Services with a minor in Psychology from Gardner-Webb University. I also hold a Master's degree in Early Childhood Education from Ashford University. My previous experiences include reading intervention, assistant teacher, & group home assistant. My family and I love sports; football, basketball, baseball & track.

My hobbies include reading, writing poetry, photography, working out, traveling with my family & trying new types of foods. I am so honored to be working with you and your child this school year.

Renea Totherow

Hello, my name is Renea Totherow. I was born and raised right here in Monroe. I have a daughter named Ella and she is my everything! I have been working with children for 12 years and have an Associate's Degree in Early Childhood Education from South Piedmont Community College. I love reading and spending time with Ella. We enjoy going to the movies, parks, or anything new to get out of our comfort zone.
